Primary Latin

Minimus and Minimus Secundus

A lively introduction to Latin for ages 7+

Author: Barbara Bell (The Joint Association of Classical Teachers)

Illustrated by Helen Forte

Join in the fun with Minimus and Minimus Secundus with their mix of myths, stories, grammar support and historical background.

- Follow the antics of a Roman family through soap-style storylines. Roman and Greek myths are intertwined with the family's story, along with photos of artefacts from Roman digs to bring the culture of Roman Britain to life.
- Ideal for developing language awareness, the course helps pupils with the basics of English and foreign languages by identifying common Latin roots.
- The Teacher's Resource Book contains English translations of the Latin passages, photocopiable worksheets and full teaching notes to support the non-specialist teacher.
- Perfect for use in lunch or after-school clubs, Minimus is now used in schools across the UK as an exciting introduction to Latin.

"I see excited children making connections between Latin and English words. It's a great feeling for me to be part of their enthusiasm."

Wendy Atkinson, Prep School Teacher

Cambridge Latin Course

.....
The leading Latin course worldwide

Authors: Cambridge School Classics Project

The most comprehensive and successful Latin course available, with over 3.5 million books sold, and currently used in over 90% of UK schools teaching Latin.

- Clear introductions to language, grammar and vocabulary are at the heart of the Course. Over 1,000 carefully designed language manipulation activities are available in print or electronic format, thoroughly exploring every area of grammar and syntax required up to, and beyond, Level 1, Level 2 and GCSE.
- The Cambridge Latin Course is the most popular Latin course available. The wide range of print and e-learning resources available permits an exciting variety of pace and media to motivate students.
- Certificated attainment and graded tests are available from the University of Cambridge after every 4 Stages (approximately every 12–16 hours of study) up to Stage 28. The certificates are particularly useful for providing accreditation for students not progressing to Levels 1, 2 or GCSE. Language assessment tests at the end of Stages 2–28 allow more regular formal assessment.
- The lively storylines, wide range of photographs and cultural information stimulate and maintain students' enthusiasm for Roman culture. Stories are set firmly in a Roman context in Pompeii, Britain, Egypt and Rome, and frequently introduce historical characters along with the historical, political and social aspects of Roman civilisation.

Greece and Rome: Text and Contexts

NEW TITLES!

A new series for students aged 16 and over studying the ancient world.

Series Editors: Eric Dugdale, James Morwood

Authors: James Morwood, John Murrell, John Claughton, Eric Dugdale, Keyne Cheshire, Philip de May, Keith Maclennan

An exciting new series that provides students with direct access to the ancient world by offering new translations of extracts from the key texts of its literature, history and civilisation, and by setting them in their historical, social and cultural contexts.

- Fresh translations of significant passages by Latin and Greek authors provide readable, informative texts with broad appeal.
- Notes and questions alongside the texts provide helpful support and prompt students to develop their own informed responses.
- Attractively illustrated to engage students and help them draw parallels between the literary and material sources.
- Student-friendly texts giving valuable support for the AS and A2 exam syllabi.

“Ideal for the Ancient History option on Cicero... It will quickly become... a recommended text-book”

Greece and Rome: Text and Contexts

NEW! Horace, A Poet for a New Age

Author: Keith Maclennan

Horace's Poetry sheds light on his world and helps us to think about our own. This selection of extracts shows how he dealt with a wide range of subjects, issues and people.

NEW! Alexander the Great

Author: Keyne Cheshire

This book invites students to follow Alexander's remarkable story and to engage with a variety of perspectives on him as king, general and human being.

Cicero and the Roman Empire

Author: John Murrell

Through a selection from Cicero's writing, this book provides a chronological outline of his life and political career.

Virgil, A Poet in Augustan Rome

Author: James Morwood

Virgil is to Latin literature what Shakespeare is to English. This book enables students to explore the issues at the heart of his work.

Greek Theatre in Context

Author: Eric Dugdale

Presents a broad selection of key ancient sources, both visual and literary, about all aspects of performance.

NEW! Lucretius: Poet and Epicurean

Author: Philip de May

Gives students insight into the artistic inventiveness, and provides a cultural and historical frame of reference and offers access to the Epicurean philosophy that underlies it.

Cambridge Translations from Greek Drama

Cambridge Translations from Greek Drama
Treating ancient plays as living drama.

Series Editors: Judith Affleck, John Harrison

Translated from the original Greek, this series aims to bring students of Classical Civilisation and Drama courses as close as possible to the playwrights' original words and intentions.

The editors combine wide experience of Classics teaching at A level with work in the theatre, ensuring that the translations are both accurate and suitable for performance.

Students are encouraged to discover the plays for themselves by exploring their dramatic qualities through practical exercises and by experimenting with the expressive use of voice, movement, mime and musical accompaniment.

These editions contain helpful editorial material, including references to Greek religion, mythology, politics and morals.
